

Near perfect weather provided pilots a glorious afternoon flight over the skies of North Idaho to the delight of thousands of spectators.

Pneuma (Val Favicchio), Reach For The Stars (Pat Murphy) and Sunshine (Jay Holcomb) offered tethered rides during a stellar late afternoon. Hundreds of balloon enthusiasts were able to experience the thrill of being in a hot air balloon.

With craft & food vendors, a hands-on hot air ballooning display, bouncing rooms for the kids, a clown & magic show, face painting, spaghetti dinner, raffle prizes and a great music by Electric Bent, there was a lot to do before the Night Glow Extravaganza began.
